

Finally I eat my dinner after a long days labor without interruption... and along comes the threat of the NJ Do Not Call list being challenged in court. Please make every effort to stop this attack on my piece and quite. Mayabe you can get the other 49 states to make their law as strict as NJ's ... and maybe you should consider tightening your regulations and make them as strong as NJ's. Thank you J. Herbert